

Good choices are important to make. It helps this world to be an amazing place to live, and helps us and the people around us to have the best possible friendships.

Superheroes make good choices to help people. Write or draw what superpowers you would have, if you were a superhero. You can even draw your costume too!

Things can stop us from making good choices - this is like a wall getting in the way.

Write or draw inside these bricks, the times where it is difficult to make a good choice.

Andrew and Charlotte went to the park, each with a bag of sweets. Andrew kicks a football close to Charlotte to make her jump. But he accidentally hits Charlotte and she drops her sweets all over the floor. What is a good choice to make?
