

Hopefully, we all have experience of being friends, and having friends. Friends can have a huge impact; they can encourage, help and support us; they are who we have fun with, and are people we should be able to trust and be honest with. Friends are really important, as they have a huge impact in us. Therefore, we need to know what makes a good friend, and choose our friends wisely.

What is a friend?

What did you notice about David & Jonathan's friendship?

How did they show they were good friends?

What was their friendship like?
